

Henry Clinton Papers

Volume Descriptions

William L. Clements Library
The University of Michigan

Finding Aid: <https://quod.lib.umich.edu/c/clementsead/umich-wcl-M-42cli?view=text>

---

Major Themes and Events in the Volumes of the Chronological Series of the Henry Clinton papers

Volume 1 1736-1763

- Death of George Clinton and distribution of estate
- Henry Clinton's property in North America
- Clinton's account of his actions in Seven Years War including his wounding at the Battle of Friedberg

Volume 2 1764-1766

- Dispersal of George Clinton estate
- Mary Dunckerley's account of bearing Thomas Dunckerley, illegitimate child of King George II
- Clinton promoted to colonel of 12th Regiment of Foot
- Matters concerning 12th Regiment of Foot

Volume 3 January 1-July 23, 1767

- Clinton's marriage to Harriet Carter
- Matters concerning 12th Regiment of Foot
- Clinton's property in North America

Volume 4 August 14, 1767-[1767]

- Matters concerning 12th Regiment of Foot
- Relations between British and Cherokee Indians
- Death of Anne (Carle) Clinton and distribution of her estate

Volume 5 January 3, 1768-[1768]

- Matters concerning 12th Regiment of Foot
- Clinton discusses military tactics
- Finances of Mary (Clinton) Willes, sister of Henry Clinton

Volume 6 January 3, 1768-[1769]

- Birth of Augusta Clinton
- Henry Clinton's finances and property in North America

Volume 7 January 9, 1770-[1771]

- Matters concerning the 12th Regiment of Foot
- Inventory of Clinton's possessions
- William Henry Clinton born
- Inspection of ports

Volume 8 January 9, 1772-May 20, 1773

- Matters concerning the 12th Regiment of Foot
- Death of Clinton's wife

Volume 9 June 3, 1773-May 1775

- Matters concerning the 12th Regiment of Foot
- Inhabitants' attitudes toward the British in Massachusetts and New York
- Henry Clinton's promotion to third in command in North America
- Henry Clinton's service in Parliament

Volume 10 June-August 1775

- Siege of Boston and Battle of Bunker Hill
- Relations with the Cherokee Indians
- The Continental Congress meets in Philadelphia
- Loyalists in Massachusetts, New York, and South Carolina
- British strategy in Massachusetts and New York

Volume 11 September 2, 1775-[October? 1775]

- Supplies and provisions for the British Army
- Proposals for the siege of Boston
- Relations with the Creek Indians
- Thomas Gage's queries for Clinton
- British strategy in Massachusetts, New York, and Rhode Island

Volume 12 November 1, 1775-December 1775, [1775]

- Proposals for the siege of Boston
- Continental Congress
- Creek Indians
- Loyalists in New York, North Carolina, and South Carolina
- British strategy in Massachusetts, New York, and Nova Scotia

Volume 13 January 1, 1776-February 15, 1776

- British views on the Battle of Bunker Hill
- Henry Clinton assigned to North Carolina
- Battle of Quebec
- British strategy in Massachusetts, New York, and the Carolinas

Volume 14 February 17, 1776-[March 1776]

- Burgoyne travels to Quebec
- John Stuart responds to rumors that he stirred up insurrection among Native Americans and African Americans
- Speculation on the loyalties of inhabitants of Georgia and Carolinas
- British remove from Boston

Volume 15 April 1, 1776-May 21, 1776

- William Phillips travels to Canada as Commander of Artillery
- British attempt to ally with Creeks
- Attempts to organize "back country" Loyalists of the Carolinas
- Founding of East Florida Rangers

Volume 16 May 22, 1776-[June] 20, 1776

- Strategy concerning Sullivan's Island
- Attempts to persuade Cherokees, Creeks, and Seminoles to aid the British
- Jonathan Bryan's fraudulent claims on Creek land
- British strategy in Canada

Volume 17 June 22, 1776-August 22, 1776

- Strategy and planning concerning Sullivan's Island
- Accounts (including several by Clinton) of the Battle of Sullivan's Island
- Charles Lee's relationship with Clinton
- Skirmish at Three Rivers, Canada
- Clinton leaves for New York

Volume 18 August 15, 1776-[November] 1776

- Reactions to defeat at Sullivan's Island in England
- Battle of Long Island (Battle of Brooklyn)
- Public opinion of Clinton
- Rhode Island strategy

Volume 19 December 3, 1776-Undated 1776

- Accounts of Rhode Island capture
- Clinton's growing quarrel with Sir Peter Parker over Sullivan's Island
- British make winter quarters in Rhode Island
- Battle of Trenton

Volume 20 January 1, 1777-[April] 1777

- Clinton's continuing quarrel with Sir Peter Parker
- Clinton's account of the Battle of White Plains
- Clinton returns to England
- Meetings with Germain and King George III
- Hugh Percy travels to Rhode Island
- Burgoyne gains command of Canada

Volume 21 May 4, 1777-July 18, 1777

- Grievances and resignation of Hugh Percy
- Poor quality of provisions
- Mask used in transmission of intelligence
- Plundering of livestock

Volume 22 July 19, 1777-August 9, 1777

- Clinton's criticisms of Howe
- Discussion of Clinton's promotion to the Order of the Bath
- Edmund Palmer arrested as a spy
- Description of conversion from Catholicism to Protestantism
- Description of battles of Saratoga (dated August 6-October 22, 1777, filed under August 6)
- Account of scalping by Native Americans in New York

Volume 23 August 10, 1777-September 11, 1777

- Clinton offers 2000 reinforcements to Burgoyne
- Clinton desires to resign but is denied
- Imprisonment of Charles Lee and his requests from prison
- Intelligence concerning New York and New Jersey
- Clinton's strategy for New Jersey

Volume 24 September 13, 1777-October 9, 1777

- Battle of Stillwater
- Reconnaissance of Verplanck's Point
- British capture Fort Montgomery and Fort Clinton

- Communication with Burgoyne cut off

Volume 25 October 10, 1777-October 31, 1777

- Burning of Esopus , New York
- Burgoyne's surrender at Saratoga
- Negotiation of the Convention
- Reactions to surrender at Saratoga

Volume 26 [October 1777]-November 15, 1777

- Reactions to surrender at Saratoga
- Exchange of some officers captured at Saratoga
- Account of Siege of Fort Stanwix

Volume 27 November 16, 1777-December 4, 1777

- Howe questions Clinton about his unwillingness to serve under him
- Americans make overtures to Hessians
- Hessians proclaim their loyalty to British
- Fort Ticonderoga

Volume 28 December 5, 1777-December 18, 1777

- Public support for Clinton from London
- Reconnaissance of Elizabethtown, New Jersey
- Report of Loyalist spy in New York
- Battle of Whitemarsh
- Intelligence report concerning American preparations for winter quarters and morale

Volume 29 December 19, 1777-[undated 1777]

- Clinton's undated [ca. 1777] commentary on the year's events
- Clinton's desire to return home

Volume 30 January 2, 1778-January 31, 1778

- Clinton's comments on the Howe brothers
- Policies concerning selling of back rations
- Extensive intelligence concerning New Jersey by Peter Dubois

Volume 31 February 3, 1778-March 9, 1778

- Commission for Restoring Peace
- Succession of commander-in-chief
- Germain's strategy

Volume 32 March 10, 1778-March 31, 1778

- Clinton named commander-in-chief
- Howe's departure for England (double check)
- Clinton's criticisms of Howe
- Cornwallis offers assistance to Clinton
- Germain's strategy

Volume 33 April 1, 1778-April 15, 1778

- Destruction of American saltworks near Manasquan River
- Germain provides instructions to Clinton
- Proposal for Royal American Reformed Regiment
- Transfer of power from Howe to Clinton

Volume 34 April 16, 1778-May 18, 1778

- Jonathan Trumbull criticizes British conduct of war
- Clinton to Philadelphia
- Phillips writes to Clinton repeatedly concerning his imprisonment with Convention Army
- Meschianza
- Plans to evacuate Philadelphia

Volume 35 May 20, 1778-June 20, 1778

- Bahamas
- Plans to evacuate Philadelphia
- Peace efforts and Clinton's comments thereon
- Dispatches from the Commission
- Clinton's journal of travel through New Jersey, including Battle of Monmouth

Volume 36 June 21, 1778-July 10, 1778

- Battle of Monmouth Courthouse
- Clinton's Return to New York
- Arrival of French Toulon Squadron

Volume 37 July 11, 1778-July 25, 1778

- French Navy at Sandy Hook, NJ
- Intelligence reports
- Returns of ordnance and American prisoners of war

Volume 38 July 26, 1778-August 9, 1778

- Need for reinforcements and supplies in Bahamas
- Patrick Ferguson's commentary and proposals
- Pennsylvania loyalists executed
- Loyalties of New York Native Americans

Volume 39 August 10, 1778-August 23, 1778

- Rhode Island naval activity and intelligence
- Concerns of New York merchants

Volume 40 August 24, 1778-September 8, 1778

- Land grants for displaced Loyalists
- Rhode Island naval activity
- Ambush of Ninham's Indian Company at Kings Bridge
- American evacuation of Rhode Island

Volume 41 September 9, 1778-September 22, 1778

- Battle of Wyoming
- Battle of Rhode Island
- Raids on Bedford and Fairhaven, Massachusetts
- Clinton's criticisms of Pigot's actions

Volume 42 September 23, 1778-October 7, 1778

- Public opinion of Clinton
- Richard Howe resignation
- British raids into Massachusetts
- Intelligence concerning New York and Massachusetts

- Dobbs Ferry expedition

Volume 43 October 8, 1778-October 21, 1778

- Disagreement over failure to take more prisoners at Dobbs Ferry
- Clinton objects to sending several large detachments to West Indies and Florida
- Cornwallis' account of the raid on Tappan, New Jersey (Baylor Massacre)
- Privateers around Egg Harbor

Volume 44 October 22, 1778-October 31, 1778

- Metcalf Bowler's secret allegiance with the British
- Ferguson's account of the Battle of Chestnut Neck
- Establishment of Volunteers of Ireland, and list of officers
- Policies concerning prisoners of war

Volume 45 November 1, 1778-November 11, 1778

- Housing of sick in New York
- Archibald Campbell's expedition to Savannah encounters obstacles
- Intelligence concerning New Jersey

Volume 46 November 12 1778-November 26, 1778

- Attempts to protect the Bahamas
- Archibald Campbell leads expedition to Georgia
- Convention Army begins move to Virginia
- Expenses of Convention Army
- William Phillips wishes to remain with Convention Army, rather than be exchanged
- Archibald Campbell's expedition to Savannah

Volume 47 November 27, 1778-December 8, 1778

- Attempts to negotiate release of Convention Army
- Clinton's attempt to resign
- Variety of returns

Volume 48 December 9, 1778-December 24, 1778

- Attempts to negotiate release of Convention Army
- Dispute between Augustus Keppel and Hugh Palliser
- Expedition to Savannah
- Clinton appointed colonel of Loyal Highland Emigrants Regiment

Volume 49 December 25, 1778-January 31, 1779

- Terrible hospital conditions in Halifax, Nova Scotia
- Provision shortages
- Undated account by Clinton of Battle of Monmouth Courthouse
- Undated 1778 materials

Volume 50 January 1, 1779-January 16, 1779

- Provision shortages, need for more victual ships
- Arrival of victuallers from Cork, Ireland
- Clinton describes health problems
- Report of Cherry Valley Massacre
- Trade policies

- Intercepted letter from Patrick Henry concerning foreign relations with Spain
- Archibald Campbell's strategy concerning Savannah

Volume 51 January 17, 1779-February 2, 1779

- Alexander Innes' account of the capture of Savannah
- Trial of Augustus Keppel
- Printed oath of allegiance to be taken by Savannah loyalists
- Clinton's desire to resign

Volume 52 February 3, 1779-February 24, 1779

- Letter from free African American to Clinton concerning grievance over housing
- Developments in Savannah
- Intelligence concerning Americans in New York
- American privateers off of Massachusetts

Volume 53 February 25, 1779-March 10, 1779

- Shortage of currency
- Burning of American barracks and stores in Elizabethtown, New Jersey
- Skirmish at Byam Bridge, New York
- Grievances of merchants in New York and Quebec
- Detailed description of defenses around Halifax, NS

Volume 54 March 11, 1779-March 31, 1779

- Patrick Ferguson's strategy for defending New York
- William Livingston accuses Clinton of plotting his assassination
- Clinton responds to Livingston

Volume 55 April 1, 1779-April 5, 1779

- Germain's instructions for Clinton
- Requests to raise a provincial corps on the southern frontier
- Augustine Prevost's account of the Battle of Briar Creek
- Plans to take Charleston, South Carolina

Volume 56 April 6, 1779-April 29, 1779

- Cornwallis leaves to join Clinton in North America
- Mermaid shipwreck
- Policies concerning deserters
- Attempts at peace negotiations
- Clinton receives commission to lead 7th Light Dragoons

Volume 57 April 30, 1779-May 11, 1779

- Clinton's response to the refusal of his resignation
- Death of John Stuart, Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Southern Provinces
- Appointment of Alexander Cameron as Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Southern Provinces
- Account of skirmish at Shrewsbury and Middletown, New Jersey
- Joseph Stansbury and John Andre refer to Benedict Arnold's changed allegiance
- Negotiations concerning Convention Army

Volume 58 May 12, 1779-May 22, 1779

- Controversy over soldiers cutting up tents
- Account of skirmishes at Portsmouth, Virginia
- Extract from the log book of the snow Vengeance

Volume 59 May 4, 1779-June 2, 1779

- Code letter from Benedict Arnold to John Andre
- Pen and ink map and detailed description of Connecticut
- William Franklin's proposal for a Board of Intelligence
- Letter in code from Joseph Stansbury to John Andre

Volume 60 June 3, 1779-June 13, 1779

- Intelligence and strategy concerning Verplanck's Point
- Account of skirmish at Byram Bridge
- 40 British soldiers surprise guards at Silleck's Mill
- British intelligence concerning low American morale
- Creek relations with British

Volume 61 June 14, 1779-June 25, 1779

- Spanish declaration of war
- Accounts of attack on Fort Johnson (S.C.)
- Charges of corruption and plundering against lieutenant colonel Andreas Emmerich
- Oneida alliance with Americans
- Withdrawal of some British troops from Verplanck's Point and Stony Point
- Burning of American barracks and meeting house near Croton Bridge, New York
- Defense of Emmerich by officers
- Rank of provincial officers

Volume 62 June 26, 1779-July 10, 1779

- Proposal for attack on New Haven
- Defense of Emmerich by inhabitants of King's Bridge
- Policies concerning African Americans
- Recruitment of loyalists within British lines
- Andre's agreement with Arnold
- Clinton's response to lack of reinforcements

Volume 63 July 11, 1779-July 24, 1779

- Benedict Arnold's demands from the British
- Accounts of Battle of Stony Point
- British retreat from Stony Point

Volume 64 July 25, 1779-July 30, 1779

- Accounts of Battle of Stony Point
- Accounts of raids on coast of Connecticut
- Accounts of Battle of Stono Ferry
- John Vaughan returns to Europe
- William Erskine's health problems

Volume 65 July 31, 1779-August 15, 1779

- Communications with Benedict Arnold

- Inquiry before court martial of Lt. Col. Henry Johnson for loss of Stony Point
- Beverly Robinson's plan for ambush on east side of the Hudson River
- Intercepted letter concerning Spanish strategy in Cuba
- Delay of Arbuthnot's fleet angers Clinton
- Anticipation of American invasion of Jamaica

Volume 66 August 16, 1779-August 30, 1779

- Report of court of enquiry concerning Andreas Emmerich
- Clinton requests that Cornwallis succeed him as commander-in-chief
- Clinton criticizes Augustine Prevost for conduct
- Court martial of William Sutherland for role in Battle of Paulus Hook

Volume 67 August 31, 1779-September 12, 1779

- Disbanding of Emmerich's Company of Chasseurs
- Arnold's demands and communications with Andre
- Arrival of Arbuthnot's fleet
- Resignation of Francis Rawdon-Hastings
- Criticism of raids on Connecticut, in which civilians were killed
- Siege of Savannah
- Rank of provincial officers

Volume 68 September 13, 1779-September 22, 1779

- West Indies strife
- Comte d'Estaing sends summons to surrender to Gen. Augustine Prevost
- Prevost requests 24-hour truce
- Widespread illness among 37th Regiment of Foot
- Verplanck's Point strategy
- Rhode Island strategy (whether to evacuate)
- Rank of provincial officers

Volume 69 September 23, 1779-September 30, 1779

- Debate over whether to evacuate Rhode Island
- Widespread illness among 37th Regiment of Foot
- Patrick Ferguson advises against abandoning Stony Point
- Widespread dysentery and other diseases among soldiers and civilians in New York
- Rank of provincial officers

Volume 70 October 1, 1779-October 8, 1779

- Debate over whether to evacuate Rhode Island
- Prevost requests evacuation of Loyalist women and children from Savannah

Volume 71 October 9, 1779-October 18, 1779

- Decision to evacuate Rhode Island
- Storm disperses reinforcements to Canada
- Canada naval strategy
- Reports on provincial forces
- Pay of provincial forces
- Grant-Browne dispute

Volume 72 October 19, 1779-October 28, 1779

- Arbuthnot wishes to hold Rhode Island
- Clinton and Arbuthnot debate the southern expedition and threat of D'Estaing's forces
- Evacuation of Rhode Island to New York
- Disease rampant in the Army
- Considerations of expedition to Halifax

Volume 73 October 29, 1779-November 5, 1779

- Further discussion of Rhode Island (undated)
- Report of death of Casimir Pulaski
- Return of casualties at Siege of Savannah
- Grant-Browne dispute

Volume 74 November 6, 1779-November 10, 1779

- Policies concerning provisional forces
- Patrick Ferguson's instructions for spies
- Intercepted George and Frederick Woodson letters
- Clinton criticizes devastation of Connecticut raids
- Clinton's account of campaign of 1779
- Augustine Prevost resigns
- Importance of Georgia

Volume 75 November 11, 1779-November 16, 1779

- Policies concerning provincial officers
- Crime and non-payment of bounties in Queen's American Rangers Regiment
- Poor hygiene of invalids in New York

Volume 76 November 17, 1779-November 23, 1779

- Clinton reports results of Siege of Savannah to Germain
- Discussion of winter quarters
- Imprisonment of Simcoe
- Court of enquiry for profiteering involving Prince of Wales' American Regiment

Volume 77 November 24, 1779-November 29, 1779

- Report on capture of ships at Omoa, Honduras
- Patrick Ferguson's assessment of New York and New Jersey
- Capture of French ship La Theresa off Cape Charles
- Dispute between John Cox and Christopher Sower over expenses of boarding

Volume 78 November 30, 1779-December 3, 1779

- Policies concerning "marauding"/pillaging by soldiers
- Bad conditions for American prisoners of war
- Americans take winter quarters
- Warrants

Volume 79 December 4, 1779-December 10, 1779

- Clinton appointed sole commissioner by George III
- Duties of Superintendent of Exports and Imports
- Trade policies
- Thomas Goldthwait requests to raise a corps of provincials

Volume 80 December 11, 1779-December 16, 1779

- Clinton's intention to go to South Carolina
- Southern strategy
- Memorials requesting promotions
- Clinton's summary of 1779 campaign

Volume 81 December 17, 1779-December 24, 1779

- Andreas Emmerich's request to return to Europe with pay
- Board of Field Officers report
- Minutes of Hospital Board meeting (New York)
- Prisoner of war policies

Volume 82 December 25, 1779-December 31, 1779

- Delays of transports
- Regulations concerning plundering
- Conversations concerning evacuation of Rhode Island
- Undated ca. 1779 intelligence reports

Volume 83 January 1780

- Knyphausen's journal of January 1-April 1, 1780: Staten Island Expedition, minor engagements in New Jersey,
- Emmerich defends himself against charges
- Alexander Campbell reports wounding at Battle of Majabigwaduce
- Disagreements between Arbuthnot and Clinton over South Carolina strategy

Volume 84 February 1, 1780-February 7, 1780

- Montfort Browne-James Grant dispute
- Clinton arrives in South Carolina
- Accusations of corruption concerning prizes
- Provision shortages on transports
- British abandon Turks Islands

Volume 85 February 8, 1780-February 19, 1780

- Alexander Campbell resigns
- Petition by widows of provincial officers
- Appointments to Commissary of Captures
- Policies concerning exchange of imprisoned privates
- Concern about French fleet and Charleston
- Patrick Ferguson's plans to gather intelligence in Savannah

Volume 86 February 20, 1780-February 26, 1780

- Policies concerning exchange of imprisoned privates
- South Carolina intelligence and reconnaissance
- Arrival of transports to South Carolina
- Parole requests

Volume 87 February 27, 1780-March 3, 1780

- Intelligence report on low morale of Americans in New Jersey
- Many horses lost in gales in South Carolina
- Delay of transports and horse ships
- George Brydges Rodney's account of Battle of Cape St. Vincent (in London Gazette Extraordinary)

- British deserter caught and turned in by three African Americans
- Instructions from John Andre to John Graham
- Compiled intelligence reports

Volume 88 March 4, 1780-March 16, 1780

- Letter from Italian revolutionary Philip Mazzei to Thomas Jefferson
- Clinton's account of journey to South Carolina and loss of transports and ordnance ships
- Clinton's desire for reinforcements and dissatisfaction
- Captain Farquhar's journal of travel up James River in Virginia
- Instructions from Germain

Volume 89 March 17, 1780-March 26, 1780

- Return gives number of slaves captured by British (South Carolina)
- Eden's account of politics in England
- Disposal of ships at South Carolina
- Hospital returns at James Island
- Casualties at engagement at Paramus, New Jersey

Volume 90 March 27, 1780-March 31, 1780

- William Axtell's plan to raise a regiment, the Nassau Blues
- Construction of barracks on Prince Edward Island
- Patrick Ferguson's proposals for securing posts in South Carolina
- Events of Clinton's journey to Charleston
- Clinton's questions concerning West Point

Volume 91 April 1, 1780-April 6, 1780

- Questions and answers concerning Quartermaster Department
- James Paterson requests that African Americans be ever ready to transport ordnance
- Lack of naval support and ordnance shortages in Bahamas
- Depositions concerning West Florida
- Account of engagement between Native Americans and Americans near Licking River (Ohio), which occurred in October 1779
- Controversy over dismissal of officers in Emmerich's Company of Chasseurs

Volume 92 April 7, 1780-April 15, 1780

- Transport shortages
- Clinton-Arbuthnot strategy discussions
- Provincial forces in West Florida
- Instructions to Lt. Col. James Webster
- Battle of Monck's Corner

Volume 93 April 16, 1780-April 21, 1780

- Battle of Monck's Corner
- Instructions to Lt. Col. Nisbet Balfour
- Account of Battle of Fort Charlotte
- George Leonard's memorial and proposals (printed)

Volume 94 April 22, 1780-April 24, 1780

- Planning of passage into Cooper River
- Clinton-Arbuthnot strategy discussions
- Royal Artillery is undermanned

- Cornwallis passes into Cooper River

Volume 95 April 25, 1780-April 30, 1780

- Royal Fusiliers reluctantly send detachment to Royal Artillery
- Clinton discusses strategy with Cornwallis
- Americans abandon post at Mount Pleasant, South Carolina
- African American boys to serve as musicians and tailors

Volume 96 May 1, 1780-May 6, 1780

- Description of plundering and slave stealing on James Island
- Clinton and Cornwallis' comments on importance of Lamprier Point
- Arming of ships around Charleston
- Troops under Ferguson take redoubts near Fort Sullivan
- Cornwallis' strategy for South Carolina
- Initial surrender negotiations fail
- Horrible conditions on American hospital ships
- Battle of Lenud's Ferry
- Smallpox onboard Swan hospital ship

Volume 97 May 7, 1780-May 12, 1780

- Articles of capitulation for surrender of Fort Moultrie
- Surrender negotiations
- Fall of Charleston
- African American soldier (of Black Pioneers) calls white soldier a "rascal"
- Lengthy general intelligence report by Peter Dubois
- Arbuthnot recommends abandonment of Penobscot Bay, strengthening of garrison at Halifax
- Andre's suggestions for regaining dominion over the colonies

Volume 98 May 13, 1780-May 15, 1780

- Clinton's account of Siege of Charleston, written to Germain
- Negotiation of terms of surrender
- Extracts of several letters from Clinton to Germain
- Clinton's criticisms of Arbuthnot and Cornwallis

Volume 99 May 16, 1780-May 20, 1780

- Patrick Ferguson's plan to take South Carolina
- Woman describes widespread plundering after Fall of Charleston
- Disrepair of British fleet
- Appointments to Commissary of Captures
- Complaint by Rawlins Lowndes concerning stealing of his slaves

Volume 100 May 21, 1780-May 24, 1780

- Importance of slaves to Charleston, South Carolina
- Clinton's proclamation concerning the seizure of rebels and confiscation of their property in South Carolina
- Conscription policies in Georgia and the Carolinas
- Intercepted Spanish letters
- Plundering of plantations near Charleston
- Parole requests

Volume 101 May 25, 1780-May 29, 1780

- Parole requests

- Imprisonment of Benjamin Lincoln, possible exchange for William Phillips
- List of refugees in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia
- Organization of two companies at Orangeburg, South Carolina
- Battle of Waxhaws

Volume 102 May 30, 1780-June 1, 1780

- Clinton criticizes Arbuthnot, Hammond, and Cornwallis in letter to Eden
- Battle of Waxhaws
- The Isis brings news of the Charleston victory to New York
- Distribution of captured goods between the services
- Clinton criticizes Cornwallis' actions at Charleston
- Clinton's comments on number of British troops
- Proposal concerning New Jersey by John Graves Simcoe

Volume 103 June 2, 1780-June 3, 1780

- Washington letter on exchange of prisoners
- Distribution of captured goods between the services
- Clinton's memorandum on policies toward African Americans
- Return of prisoners captured at Charleston
- Proclamation by Clinton

Volume 104 June 4, 1780-June 15, 1780

- Battle of Waxhaws casualties
- Battle of Connecticut Farms
- Prisoner of war treatment
- Arnold and West Point

Volume 105 June 16, 1780-June 22, 1780

- Arnold's description of West Point
- Memorandum on Battle of Connecticut Farms
- Excursions in New Jersey
- Gordon Riots in London
- Clinton arrives in New York
- Copied and compiled Arbuthnot-Clinton correspondence concerning French Navy
- Henry Herbert, earl of Pembroke discusses Gordon Riots

Volume 106 June 23, 1780-June 27, 1780

- Battle of Springfield
- Gordon Riots in London
- Intelligence concerning French Navy
- James Robertson appointed governor of New York

Volume 107 June 28, 1780-June 30, 1780

- Investigation of overspending by Commissary General
- Gordon Riots in London
- Lengthy Cornwallis letter includes news and strategy
- Knyphausen's reasons for making a move into New Jersey

Volume 108 July 1, 1780-July 3, 1780

- Thomas Pelham Clinton (3rd duke of Newcastle) presents Clinton's dispatches to Germain and King George III
- Correspondents speculate on causes of Gordon Riots
- Returns

Volume 109 July 4, 1780-July 5, 1780

- Deposition concerning the Russia Merchant (ship)
- Clinton requests that Cornwallis send extra troops northward
- Account of engagements of the 1st Regiment of Guards in New Jersey during March 1780
- Accounts of other minor engagements in New Jersey, enclosed in letter to Germain
- Account of Staten Island expedition
- Gordon Riots

Volume 110 July 6, 1780-July 10, 1780

- Compiled excerpts of Clinton-Arbuthnot correspondence of July and August
- French fleet spotted near Cape of Delaware
- Aftermath of Gordon Riots
- Numerous requests for leaves of absence

Volume 111 July 11, 1780-July 15, 1780

- Letter from Benedict Arnold signed "J. Moore"
- Report on defenses of Refugee Post in New Jersey
- Haldimand disappointed on decision not to reinforce Quebec
- Court of enquiry concerning assistance to deserters of the 17th Light Dragoons Regiment
- Arnold agrees to surrender the fort at West Point for 20,000 pounds

Volume 112 July 16, 1780-July 29, 1780

- Tarleton's displeasure at actions of officers and death of Capt. Huck in South Carolina
- Intelligence concerning French fleet at Rhode Island
- Dire shortage of medical supplies at Charleston
- Chesapeake strategy

Volume 113 July 23, 1780-July 30, 1780

- Arbuthnot confirms French Navy presence off of Rhode Island
- Arnold and West Point
- Reinforcements from Europe

Volume 114 July 31, 1780-August 2, 1780

- Clinton memos on strategy
- Proclamation by William Smith
- Knyphausen's reasons for moving into New Jersey
- Battle of Bull's Ferry

Volume 115 August 3, 1780-August 7, 1780

- Clinton orders boats up the North River
- Germain's comments on Prohibitory Act
- Arrest of Lt. Col. Frederick Thomas for defamation
- Cornwallis declines to send reinforcements from the Carolinas

Volume 116 August 8, 1780-August 13, 1780

- Case of Lt. Col. Frederick Thomas (defamation)
- 17th Light Dragoons ordered to cross to Long Island
- Battle of Hanging Rock
- Clinton's account of activities of June-August
- James Simpson reports on Carolinas

Volume 117 August 14, 1780-August 18, 1780

- Clinton spells out grievances in letter to Eden
- Clinton's account of attempts to have conference with Arbuthnot
- Battle of Camden
- Clinton complains about Arbuthnot and Graves to Eden
- Battle of Fishing Creek (Catawba Ford)

Volume 118 August 19, 1780-August 26, 1780

- Minutes of conversation between Dalrymple, Arbuthnot, and Mathew concerning operation against French fleet
- Clinton's account of Battle of Bull's Ferry
- Cornwallis' account of Battle of Camden, Battle of Fishing Creek (Catawba Ford), and Battle of Hanging Rock
- Cornwallis' plans to recruit in South Carolina and stock provisions for winter
- Arrangements for securing West Point
- Battle of Camden
- Clinton convinced of necessity of Chesapeake operation

Volume 119 August 27, 1780-August 30, 1780

- Arrest of Capt. William Barry for disobedience of orders
- Frederick Thomas case
- Report on dissolution of Emmerich's Chasseurs
- Uninhabitable condition of barracks at Fort Mifflin
- Report on state of South Carolina

Volume 120 August 31, 1780-September 1, 1780

- Widespread yellow fever among French Navy
- Clinton's memorandum on events of June-August 1780
- Clinton's account of an attempt to poison him
- Clinton's comments on Hessians
- Report on willingness of Church of Brethren members to collaborate with British

Volume 121 September 2, 1780-September 5, 1780

- List of American prisoners of war sent to St. Augustine (Florida) on parole
- Letters relating to prisoner Henry Van Schaack's request to be exchanged
- General intelligence report by spy William Heron
- Instructions for an expedition into Chesapeake Bay

Volume 122 September 6, 1780-September 11, 1780

- Provision shortages in New York
- Extracts of Germain's writings concerning the Chesapeake Bay operations

- Arbuthnot commits to strengthening naval force in Carolinas

Volume 123 September 12, 1780-September 19, 1780

- Benedict Arnold's alliance with the British
- Intelligence item in cipher
- Discussion of provision shortages in Navy

Volume 124 September 20, 1780-September 30, 1780

- Details of Clinton's proposed expedition to Chesapeake
- Officers complain about high prices of necessities
- Cornwallis' proclamation concerning American property
- Banastre Tarleton's illness
- Relief of Augusta (including John Harris Cruger's and Thomas Brown's accounts)
- Capture of Andre
- Attempts to exchange Andre
- Andre's farewell to Clinton
- American soldier's comments on Arnold-Andre affair

Volume 125 October 1, 1780-October 12, 1780

- Clinton's accounts of Arnold-Andre affair (to sisters-in-law, to Germain)
- Arnold's address upon joining the British Army
- Memorial of American prisoners of war at Long Island
- Instructions for Alexander Leslie on Chesapeake expedition

Volume 126 October 13, 1780-October 25, 1780

- Proposal concerning Chesapeake Bay by James Chalmers
- Arnold claims that Andre promised him 10,000 pounds (not 6,000)
- Removal of refugees from post at Bergen Point
- Jervis' account of undisciplined Navy

Volume 127 October 26, 1780-October 31, 1780

- Arnold's report on American Army
- Reports of Ferguson's death and the Battle of Kings Mountain, Clinton's criticisms of Cornwallis for them
- Intercepted American letters by Alexander Hamilton, Maryland General Assembly, etc.

Volume 128 November 1, 1780-November 7, 1780

- Board of Associated Loyalists documents and address
- Desertion of African Americans
- Chesapeake expedition
- List of British general officers

Volume 129 November 8, 1780-November 12, 1780

- Rawdon's account of Siege of Augusta and Battle of Kings Mountain
- Cape Fear River expedition
- Old Stone Fort battle

Volume 130 November 13, 1780-November 20, 1780

- Orders concerning transports
- Provision returns
- Disposition of British ships in Charleston, South Carolina

- British victuallers delayed
- Discussion of Choctaw Indians

Volume 131 November 21, 1780–November 30, 1780

- Deserters' depositions
- Deposition of Hessian soldiers
- Intercepted American letters
- Clinton's comments on Battle of Kings Mountain

Volume 132 December 1, 1780–December 7, 1780

- Battle of Blackstock's Plantation
- Cornwallis' account of Battle of Camden
- Germain and George III reactions to death of Andre
- Rawdon's report on inhabitants of South Carolina
- Policies concerning victuallers and transports

Volume 133 December 8, 1780–December 15, 1780

- Dangers of refugee post at Bergen Point
- Report of trade in Virginia and Maryland
- Intelligence concerning winter quarters of American Army
- Leslie's expedition returns
- Dispute between Clinton and Arbuthnot over sending ships to West Indies

Volume 134 December 16, 1780--December 26, 1780

- British relations with Cherokee and Creek (Muscogee) Indians
- Commissary of Captures
- Leslie's account of expedition
- Cornwallis complains about poor quality of reinforcements
- Foreign relations with Dutch

Volume 135 December 27, 1780–December 31, 1780

- Forage scarcity and policies
- Conduct of Capt. Thomas Stirling
- Comparative view of expenses, 1775-1780
- Plans and memorials by Charles Cochrane

Volume 136 Undated 1780: writers A-F

- Petition from Convention Army Hessians
- Policies on seizure of rebel property in Charleston
- Various memoranda by Clinton
- Clinton's criticisms of Howe's Narrative, including his decisions after Battle of Long Island

Volume 137 Undated 1780: writers G-W

- Various returns
- James Moncrief's plans for blockade of Charleston
- Invitation to enlist (British)

Volume 138 January 1, 1781–January 3, 1781

- January 1 returns
- New Year's greetings from Black Pioneers Regiment to Clinton
- Letter from William Andre, brother of John, reacting to death
- Policies concerning captured rebel property

- News of mutiny among Pennsylvania Line

Volume 139 January 4, 1781-January 9, 1781

- Clinton's proposals to Pennsylvania Line mutineers
- William Phillips' will
- Intelligence concerning Connecticut
- Cornwallis' proposed route
- Distribution of printed declarations of loyalty to British
- Accounts of Pennsylvania Line mutiny and their demands
- Gen. Anthony Wayne's sympathy with mutineers
- Skirmish at Amboy, New Jersey

Volume 140 January 10, 1781-January 14, 1781

- More on Pennsylvania Line mutiny
- Report on Amboy
- Capture of two British spies monitoring Pennsylvania Line, James Murphy and ? Ogden
- Numerous intelligence reports and depositions

Volume 141 January 15, 1781-January 22, 1781

- Report on end of Pennsylvania Line mutiny
- James Ogden and ? Murphy hanged as spies in New Jersey
- Numerous intelligence reports and depositions
- Cornwallis' Battle of Cowpens
- More on settling Pennsylvania Line mutiny
- Construction of gun-boats
- Jefferson printed proclamation concerning coercion of Virginians

Volume 142 January 23, 1781-January 25, 1781

- Documents and instructions relating to the Board of Directors of the Associated Loyalists
- Mutiny of New Jersey Line and British encouragement thereof
- More on Pennsylvania Line mutiny
- Intelligence concerning New York and New Jersey

Volume 143 January 26, 1781-January 30, 1781

- Intelligence concerning New York and New Jersey
- Edward Mathew's comments on war with Dutch
- Destruction of Spanish works on Gibraltar

Volume 144 January 31, 1781, Undated January

- Clinton's comments on Cowpens campaign
- DeLancey's "journal" of the mutiny of the Pennsylvania Line
- Meeting minutes of the Board of Directors of the Associated Loyalists (January 1781-February 1782)
- Undated items concerning Pennsylvania Line mutiny

Volume 145 February 1, 1781-February 9, 1781

- Extracts of minutes of Connecticut General Assembly
- Spanish in West Florida, Galvez expedition to Mobile
- Printed broadside concerning Battle of Cowpens
- Battle of Cowan's Ford
- More on resolution of Pennsylvania Line mutiny
- Arnold's Portsmouth (Virginia) expedition

Volume 146 February 10, 1781-February 23, 1781

- Loss of HMS Culloden
- Intelligence on Battle of Cowpens
- Clinton criticizes Cornwallis' use of detachments
- Proclamation by Cornwallis inviting loyalists to Hillsborough, North Carolina
- Arnold's Portsmouth (Virginia) expedition
- Departure of French ships for Chesapeake

Volume 147 February 25, 1781-March 1, 1781

- Intelligence that Lafayette is moving southward with Continental troops
- Clinton-Arbuthnot dispute over whether to leave Gardiner's Bay
- Clinton-Cornwallis dispute over quality of reinforcements
- Clinton's account of activities of March 1-16, 1781
- Cornwallis' account of Battle of Cowan's Ford
- Intelligence that American soldiers headed southward under Lafayette
- French blockade Chesapeake

Volume 148 March 2, 1781-March 9, 1781

- Planned expedition under Capt. Charles Hudson
- Record of provisions per soldier for British Army
- Controversy over Hudson expedition
- Distribution of prizes among Army and Navy
- Romulus captured by French
- Ethan Allen explains Vermont's independent position

Volume 149 March 10, 1781-March 16, 1781

- Hudson expedition encounters delays
- Intelligence concerning Nathanael Greene
- Conflict with Arbuthnot over Hudson expedition
- Battle of Guilford Courthouse casualties

Volume 150 March 17, 1781-March 26, 1781

- Cornwallis' accounts of Battles of Cowpens and Guilford Courthouse
- Clinton's Chesapeake Bay strategy
- William Phillips departs for Chesapeake with reinforcements
- Rumors about the loyalties of Ethan Allen
- Proposals for intercepting mail
- Prominence of Ira and Ethan Allen and attitudes of Vermonters

Volume 151 March 27, 1781-April 5, 1781

- Battle of Cape Henry
- Skirmish at Chestnut Neck, New Jersey
- Murder of Captain James Dunlop
- Rodney's comments on Anglo-Dutch War
- Rodney's account of British Capture of St. Eustatius
- American casualties at Battle of Guilford Courthouse
- Chesapeake Bay strategy

Volume 152 April 6, 1781-April 20, 1781

- Returns of Convention Army
- Account of James Webster's death after Guilford Courthouse

- Captured letter from Philip Mazzei to Thomas Jefferson
- Account of British capture of St. Eustatius
- William Phillips falls ill on his way to Cornwallis

Volume 153 April 21, 1781-April 29, 1781

- Siege of Pensacola
- Cornwallis' account of Battle of Guilford Courthouse and aftermath, including skirmish at Ramsay's Mill
- Cornwallis' proclamation concerning
- Clinton requests transports to send 2000 reinforcements to Chesapeake Bay
- Question of Arbuthnot's departure

Volume 154 April 30, 1781-May 5, 1781

- Clinton denies Leslie's request to return to Europe
- Clinton requests reassignment of Arbuthnot
- Intelligence concerning Gibraltar
- Distribution of Charleston prize money between Army and Navy
- Germain stresses importance of south as the main objective of the war
- Battle of Hobkirk's Hill
- Balfour worries about excessive Army expenditures in Charleston

Volume 155 May 6, 1781-May 19, 1781

- Division of prizes between Army and Navy
- Shortages of small arms in Carolinas
- Letters and documents concerning loyalties and activities of Vermonters
- Riots over paper currency in Philadelphia
- Arnold's account of Battle of Hobkirk's Hill
- Destruction of French tobacco in Virginia
- Clinton harshly criticizes Cornwallis

Volume 156 May 20, 1781-May 29, 1781

- American troops under Greene move into South Carolina
- Journal of the Siege of Fort Watson
- Worsening illness and death of William Phillips
- Cornwallis approves Arnold's request to return to New York
- James Robertson arrives in Chesapeake
- Clinton declines travel to Chesapeake
- Captured American mail, including George Washington's letter to his dentist

Volume 157 May 30, 1781-June 6, 1781

- Intercepted American mail
- Hessian reinforcements successfully avoid French and Dutch interception
- Account of Siege of Fort Motte
- Germain stresses agreement with Cornwallis on importance of Virginia

Volume 158 June 7, 1781-June 9, 1781

- Holland-Sullivan letters
- Reactions to William Phillips' death
- Rawdon's account of Battle of Hobkirk Hill
- Intercepted Washington and Lafayette letters

Volume 159 June 10, 1781-June 19, 1781

- Clinton's discussion of detachments for Chesapeake
- Brief account of Invasion of Tobago
- Slave stealing in Virginia
- Poor conditions for British prisoners of war at Lancaster Barracks (Pennsylvania)
- Extensive intelligence report from Rhode Island

Volume 160 June 20, 1781-June 28, 1781

- Intelligence concerning French
- Expedition against Philadelphia
- Discussion of Spanish-American and French-American foreign relations

Volume 161 June 29, 1781-July 2, 1781

- Arbuthnot recalled to Europe
- Anti-British sentiments of Bermudans
- Skirmishes in Virginia
- Battle of Spencer's Ordinary
- Cornwallis stresses importance of Virginia, disapproves of Philadelphia expedition
- Discussion of paper currency in Philadelphia

Volume 162 July 3, 1781-July 6, 1781

- Arbuthnot sails for Europe on the Roebuck
- Clinton's remarks on Arbuthnot's criticisms of him in a published letter to Sir Philip Stevens
- Accounts and casualty return for Battle of Hobkirk's Hill and aftermath
- Siege of Ninety-Six
- Westchester Militia skirmish at Frog's Point
- Proposals from Clinton to Thomas Graves
- Battle of Green Spring casualty return

Volume 163 July 7, 1781-July 11, 1781

- Clinton requisitions troops from Cornwallis
- Cornwallis' account of Battle of Green Spring
- Intelligence on French military
- Clinton's proclamation concerning bounties given to American deserters who join the British
- Clinton instructs Cornwallis to hold Old Point Comfort

Volume 164 July 12, 1781-July 15, 1781

- Intelligence agent betrays Associated Loyalists, many seized in Maryland and Pennsylvania
- Intercepted letters from Greene and Lafayette
- Intelligence concerning 2nd New Jersey Regiment (Jersey Brigade)

Volume 165 July 16, 1781-July 21, 1781

- Clinton's comments on division of prizes
- Siege of Ninety-Six and aftermath
- Skirmish at Shubrick's Plantation
- Drummond recommends seizing horses, wagons, and vessels to curb excessive expenditures

- Associated Loyalists Board of Directors proposals concerning trade
- Intercepted American letters, including comments on Battle of Green Springs

Volume 166 July 22, 1781-July 26, 1781

- British attempts to enlist members of Duc de Lauzon's mounted legion
- Cornwallis defends his movements to Wilmington and Petersburg, Virginia to Clinton
- Captured letters by Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer and Joseph Jones
- Clinton's comments on Siege of Pensacola
- Drummond attempts to curtail excessive military spending

Volume 167 July 27, 1781-[July] 1781

- Clinton disappointed by small number of reinforcements from West Indies
- Intelligence concerning New York
- Draft of George Beckwith's plan to surprise French at White Plains, New York

Volume 168 August 1, 1781-August 2, 1781

- British believe Americans ordered to Peekskill to make attack upon New York
- Enclosures relating to Vermont
- Rodney and Vaughan depart from England
- Expenditures of public accounts

Volume 169 August 3, 1781-August 9, 1781

- Appointment of Board to investigate excessive expenditures
- Nisbet Balfour's account of the Siege of Ninety-Six and relief by Rawdon
- Clinton-Cornwallis dispute over Cornwallis' retreat to Portsmouth
- Survey of Old Point Comfort

Volume 170 August 10, 1781-August 18, 1781

- Arrival of 2500 German recruits at New York
- Proposals to free Convention troops
- Clinton recommends DeLancey for Adjutant General
- Conditions at Lancaster Barracks (prison for British prisoners of war)
- Deposition of "Miss Jenny," female spy
- Dream/prophecy of Murphy Steel of the Black Pioneers, who envisions an uprising against Washington by African Americans
- Clinton's plans for New York and justifications
- Delay of Royal Oak and Robust delays expedition against Rhode Island
- American troop movements in New York

Volume 171 August 19, 1781-August 23, 1781

- Cornwallis describes troop movements in Virginia
- Cornwallis-Clinton dispute over crossing James River
- Description of large-scale migration to Vermont
- American troop movements in New York and New Jersey
- Discussion of constructing works at Gloucester, Virginia
- Clinton receives intelligence that American and French troops are headed for the Chesapeake
- Requests for tools for digging trenches in Yorktown

Volume 172 August 24, 1781-August 30, 1781

- Franco-American troop movement southward
- Cornwallis requests money to be sent to Yorktown
- Lochry's defeat (Lochry Massacre)
- French Army arrival at Chatham
- Graves rejects Associated Loyalists' request for shipping

Volume 173 August 31, 1781-September 6, 1781

- Leslie ordered to Charleston on the Blonde
- Clinton's plans against Rhode Island
- Clinton proposes expedition against privateers off Connecticut
- Auditing of public expenses

Volume 174 September 7, 1781-September 17, 1781

- Clinton's account to Germain of American movements, August-September
- Cornwallis reports arrival of de Grasse's fleet in Chesapeake
- Benedict Arnold's account of Battle of Groton Heights and capture of Fort Griswold
- British Council of War meeting minutes
- Council of War debate sending forces to relieve Cornwallis at Chesapeake, decide to wait for better conditions
- Clinton's questions for Peter Russell

Volume 175 September 18, 1781-September 23, 1781

- List of ships in de Grasse's fleet
- Bergen Point and disagreements over wood
- Numerous intelligence reports
- British Council of War meeting minutes

Volume 176 September 24, 1781-September 29, 1781

- Cornwallis describes distribution of American and French around Chesapeake in early- and mid-September
- Enclosures to Germain concerning Chesapeake strategy and relief of Cornwallis
- Thomas Graves' account of the Battle of the Chesapeake and damage to ships
- British Council of War meeting minutes
- Decision to send assistance from Army and Navy to Chesapeake
- Vermont negotiations with the British

Volume 177 September 30, 1781-October 1, 1781

- Clinton's undated September memoranda
- Enclosures from Haldimand concerning independence of Vermont
- British Council of War meeting minutes
- Appointment of Vermont Commissioners

Volume 178 October 2, 1781-October 9, 1781

- Clinton's summary and comments on September 1781
- Haldimand's Vermont proclamation
- Siege of Yorktown
- British Council of War meeting minutes
- Clinton's questions for the Council of War

Volume 179 October 10, 1781-October 15, 1781

- British Council of War meeting minutes
- Proposal by Thomas Graves concerning military strategy
- Clinton describes strategy to Germain and encloses letters to and from Cornwallis concerning the Siege of Yorktown and British relief strategies

Volume 180 October 16, 1781-October 28, 1781

- Thomas Graves departs with fleet for Yorktown
- Cornwallis describes American construction of trenches and British casualties
- Surrender of Yorktown
- Articles of capitulation
- Cornwallis' account and comments on the surrender
- Clinton receives first news of Yorktown surrender
- Alexander Leslie succeeds Cornwallis in Command of the Southern District

Volume 181 October 29, 1781-November 5, 1781

- Clinton informs Germain of surrender at Yorktown
- Enclosures from Cornwallis describe Siege of Yorktown
- Benedict Arnold asks to return to Europe
- British worry that Americans/French will capture Charleston

Volume 182 November 6, 1781-November 11, 1781

- Negotiation of Yorktown surrender
- Thomas Graves resigns
- Clinton and Samuel Hood discussion of re-embarkation of 69th Regiment of Foot for the West Indies
- Outcry over American rejection of 10th Article of Capitulation of Yorktown, which would have offered immunity to American Loyalists
- List of British officers captured at Yorktown

Volume 183 November 12, 1781-November 22, 1781

- Franklin's comments on American rejection of 10th Article of Capitulation of Yorktown, which would have offered immunity to American Loyalists
- Loyalties of Vermont

Volume 184 November 23, 1781-November 30, 1781

- Forage money policies
- List of transports to remain in America
- Summary of speeches in Parliament concerning the continuation of the war
- William Smith's comments on restoration of "civil government"
- Clinton and Cornwallis dispute over Yorktown
- Clinton states "the game is up" and doubts the war can continue

Volume 185 December 1, 1781-December 5, 1781

- Alexander Leslie's report on the insecurity of Charleston and proposal for troop movements
- Clinton and Cornwallis argue over responsibility for Yorktown
- Mellish describes reactions to Yorktown in Great Britain

- Public criticisms of Clinton

Volume 186 December 6, 1781-December 12, 1781

- Clinton presents his case against Cornwallis to Germain
- Cornwallis prepares for return to England
- Reactions to Yorktown surrender in Parliament
- Account of Battle of Lindley's Mill
- Council of War meeting minutes

Volume 187 December 13, 1781-December 20, 1781

- Accounts of Lord Rawdon's capture at sea
- Auditing of expenditures in South Carolina
- Council of War meeting minutes
- Policies and reports concerning wood at Bergen Point Refugee Post

Volume 188 December 21, 1781-December 31, 1781

- Thomas Baddeley expresses gratitude toward Clinton
- Comments on shortages of entrenchment tools at Yorktown
- Henri Crublier d'Opeterre's journal of the Yorktown Siege
- Enclosures concerning Leslie, including his request for reinforcements for Charleston and discussion of Loyalist claims
- New York Council meeting minutes
- Charges of disloyalty against Col. Roger Morris found to be false
- Clinton's memorandum giving reasons for not sending reinforcements to the West Indies

Volume 189 1781

- Undated Clinton memoranda on Yorktown, the mutiny of the Pennsylvania Line, Drummond's investigation of expenditures
- Account of skirmish involving Loyal Refugee Volunteers at Closter, New Jersey

Volume 190 January 2, 1782-January 25, 1782

- Thomas Pelham-Clinton (3rd duke of Newcastle) reports that Germain has sided with Cornwallis against Clinton
- Drummond's investigation of public expenditures
- Clinton's comments on tenth article of capitulation for Yorktown
- Clinton on restoration of civil government
- Depositions concerning Roger Morris

Volume 191 January 26, 1782-March 4, 1782

- Cornwallis captured by privateers en route to England
- Drummond's public expenditures investigation
- Germain elevated to peerage
- Clinton's defense of actions leading up to Yorktown
- Journal of escaped British sergeants (23rd Regiment of Foot)

Volume 192 March 5, 1782-March 20, 1782

- Thomas Townshend's comments on public expenditures
- Clinton's complaints about Cornwallis to Lord Lincoln
- Enclosures related to Duncan's investigation of public accounts

Volume 193 March 21, 1782-April 22, 1782

- Meeting minutes for the Board of General Officers

- Clinton memo on relief of Jamaica

Volume 194 April 23, 1782-June 23, 1782

- Minutes of the court martial of Richard Lippincott
- Drummond's investigation of public accounts
- Guy Carleton succeeds Clinton as Commander-in-Chief
- Carleton's orders concerning public accounts
- Clinton departs for England
- Memorials of Loyal Refugee Volunteers

Volume 195 June 24, 1782-August 25, 1782

- Clinton arrives in England
- Cornwallis' examination before Commissioners of Public Accounts
- Andrew Elliot's report on Commissary, Barrack Master, Quartermaster departments
- Thomas Carter's declining health and death

Volume 196 August 25, 1782-December 31, 1782

- Andrew Elliot praises Cornwallis' attempts to reduce public expenditures
- Settlement of Loyalists in Nova Scotia
- British discuss evacuation of New York
- Clinton writes and circulates his Narrative
- Letter from Edward Gibbon on Clinton's Narrative
- Clinton's response to Carleton's orders

Volume 197 January-June 1783

- Reactions to Clinton's Narrative
- Clinton's efforts to be paid for his final days as commander-in-chief
- Preliminary peace treaty and objections by Loyalists and provincial forces
- Settlement of Loyalists in Nova Scotia

Volume 198 July-December 1783

- Clinton's regiment taken away
- Clinton's finances
- Accounting for prizes captured during the war
- Clinton's debts to the Treasury

Volume 199 January-July 1784

- Clinton's debts to the Treasury
- Clinton takes residence at Orwell Park
- Commissioners of Public Accounts
- George Clinton's finances

Volume 200 August-December 1784

- Writ against Thomas Ward
- Comments on Clinton's Narrative
- Clinton's defenses of expenditures
- Thomas Ward returns to England and requests financial assistance
- Clinton's falling out with the Duke of Newcastle
- Clinton's comments on Guy Carleton
- List of officers in provincial corps

Volume 201 January 1, 1785-June 13, 1785

- Thomas Ward's finances and family
- Clinton's dealings with Pitt and Commissioners
- Clinton's social affairs

Volume 202 June 14, 1785-September 30, 1785

- Thomas Ward's finances and family
- Clinton's social affairs

Volume 203 October-December 1785

- Clinton's social visits
- Questioning by commissioners over land captured at Charleston
- Clinton's notes on Andrew's History of the War
- Thomas Ward's finances

Volume 204 January 11, 1786-May 1786

- Clinton urges George Rose to provide support to Loyalists
- Clinton's quarrel with Duke of Richmond
- Morning Herald letters--Oliver's Ghost
- Clinton's family matters

Volume 205 June 3, 1786-August 1786

- Clinton's annotation of Cornwallis' correspondence
- Clinton's quarrel with Duke of Richmond
- Clinton's family matters
- Clinton's journal covering late 1786

Volume 206 September 5, 1786-December 31, 1786

- Treasury orders Clinton, Hays, and Frazer to pay back Charleston prize money
- List of papers transmitted by Clinton to the Commissioners of Public Accounts
- Further investigation of Clinton by Commissioners of Public Accounts
- Howe defends his expenditures to the Commissioners
- Letter to Lord Sheffield describing visit by unspecified Native Americans to London
- Clinton's quarrel with Duke of Richmond

Volume 207 January 6, 1787-September 1787

- Charles Mellish's "Observations on the French East India Trade"
- Controversy over Thomas Rogers
- Clinton's further comments on his Narrative
- Clinton's key to docketed letters

Volume 208 October 1787-April 1788

- Clinton's remarks on Tarleton's History
- Clinton travels Europe
- Clinton's comments on John Watson Tadwell Watson's Narrative
- Augusta Clinton elopes with Henry Dawkins

Volume 209 May 1788-December 1788

- Clinton's comments on Russo-Turkish War
- George Hay must repay prize money
- Clinton's account of Augusta Clinton's elopement

Volume 210 1789

- Clinton's notes on Simcoe's Journal of the Operations of the Queen's Rangers
- Clinton travels Europe
- Observations on Russo-Turkish War (1787-1792)
- William Dalrymple's testimony to Commissioners of Public Accounts
- Anonymous account of the Battle of the Nedumkotta (with water-color illustrations)
- Claims by Riedesel

Volume 211 January 1790-August 1790

- Report on Clinton's property in North America
- Clinton's report concerning prize money in Charleston
- Memo on permanent rank of provincial officers
- Questions for William Dalrymple concerning public accounts, partially answered by Clinton
- Claims by Riedesel
- Clinton informed of confiscation of his New York property

Volume 212 September 1790-March 1791

- Clinton's comments on French Revolution and European politics
- Third Mysore War and its importance for the British
- Clinton is re-elected to Parliament
- Defense of actions at Yorktown
- Printed extract concerning slave uprisings in Dominica

Volume 213 April 1791-December 1791

- Third Anglo-Mysore War
- Claims by Riedesel
- Clinton must purchase commissions for his sons
- Clinton's address to the Commissioners of Public Accounts
- Russo-Turkish War

Volume 214 January 1, 1792-September 12, 1792

- George Hay corruption charges
- Charles Stevenson's account of Northwest Indian War
- Third Anglo-Mysore War
- Battle of the Wabash
- Clinton's notes to be read with his Narrative
- Memo concerning Clinton's will
- Legal actions concerning Clinton's property in North America
- Clinton's account of Battle of Monmouth
- Clinton's memo on the French Revolution

Volume 215 September 13, 1792-December 31, 1792

- Clinton meets with King George III
- Clinton's comments on French Revolution and Duke of Brunswick
- Peter Russell goes to Canada
- Peggy (Shippen) Arnold pleads for financial assistance from British

- Clinton's comments on Northwest Indian War

Volume 216 January 1793-September 1793

- Clinton's letter to Joseph Brant (Thayendanegea)
- Northwest Indian War and peace efforts
- Peter Russell and John Graves Simcoe report on Canada
- French Revolution

Volume 217 October 1793-June 1794

- Memorandum on Philip Schuyler
- Clinton and Toulon
- French Revolution
- Siege of Dunkirk
- Nootka Sound affair
- Death of Henry Fiennes Clinton, 2nd duke of Newcastle
- Clinton's desire for governorship of Gibraltar

Volume 218 July 1794-December 1794

- Clinton promised governorship of Gibraltar
- Clinton's health declines
- Simcoe reports on Northwest Indian War and Battle of Fallen Timbers
- Notes for Observations on Mr. Stedman's History of the American War
- Clinton's notes on History of the American War (Stedman)
- Clinton's reasons for publishing his history of the war

Volume 219 1795

- Clinton's notes on Stedman's history of the war
- Clinton regains land in North America
- Henry Fiennes Clinton (Duke of Newcastle) estate
- Clinton transfers land in North America to William Henry Clinton
- Comments on British in French Revolution
- "Regulations to Be Observed by Troops Embarked in Transports for Service Abroad" (printed pamphlet)
- Death of Clinton

Volume 220 1796-1850

- Clinton's estate
- Conflict over Clinton's property in New York
- Death of Peter Russell
- Poem about Native Americans: "The Many Nations in Irregular Rhyme"
- Death of Sarah Martha Holroyd